

Officials Votes on Disqualification

A disqualification vote is taken separately from any other vote. When a disqualification vote is asked for, the Center Referee will say, "For Disqualification, Judges Call". A judge will then cast their vote by holding the flag color or extend their arm at the contestant he/she thinks should be disqualified. If he/she does not believe there should be a disqualification, he/she does not hold out a flag or extend arm.