

Late or Staggered Call

If a judging official is seen by another judging official in the same ring to have given a late or staggered call, the official witnessing the late or staggered call (if not the Center Referee) will immediately inform the Center Referee of the late or staggered call. The judging officials call in question will be deemed void.