

Contestant

All contestants must present themselves suitably attired (as described in uniform & equipment) and ready to compete.

Upon being called to compete, competitor shall enter the ring from the opposite side of the Center Judge.

Upon arriving before the Judges the contestant shall bow and make his/her presentation.

After approval from the Center Judge to begin, contestant shall bow and then go to an area in the ring in which contestant wishes to begin performance.

When contestant is ready he/she starts the performance.

At the completion of the performance, contestant waits for judges score and approval to leave the ring.

After receiving approval, contestant bows towards the Judges and then leaves the ring.

Penalty

Any competitor not suitably attired or available when called to compete shall be automatically disqualified.
