

Introduction to the Judges

A competitor must have an introduction to the judges before competing.

It may be creative but must be respectful.

The introduction must include but is not limited to the competitors' name, form or a request for permission to begin.