

Second Tie

If a tied situation still exists after the second performance of the same routine, the Judges will stand up and on the Center Judges command, point to the competitor they feel is the winner.

The competitor with the most votes will then be declared winner.

If there are three or more tied competitors then the remaining competitors will be voted on in the same manner until a winner is decided upon and all places have been filled.