

When Placement Awards are Announced

Contestants may make an official protest during the awarding of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places to the contestants..

If a contestant feels they should have placed but did not, they may ask the Center Judge for a time out and have the placement order checked. This protest must be done before the division is “Bowed Out” by the Center Judge. Once a division is “Bowed Out”, no corrections will be made. The outcome is final.
