

When Scorekeeper Adds Judges Score

Representative may watch the addition of the points entered for their competitor.

If there is an error on the addition, the representative may request a time out from the Center Judge and state their protest.

After the Center Judges has ruled on the addition of points protest, the representative must leave the competition area.