

When Scorekeeper Calls and Enters Judges Score

A contestant's representative is allowed to watch the scores of their competitor as it is being recorded on the official elimination form.

If an error by the scorekeeper is observed, the representative may request a time out from the Center Judge and state their protest.

The request for time out must be made before the competitor bows out.

If request is made after the competitor bows out, the score entered will stand.