

Rules Violations

All contestant protests regarding rule violations shall be brought to the attention of the Center Judge (unless otherwise noted) who shall get the Rules Arbitrator.

If the Center Judge refuses, then the competitor may get the Rules Arbitrator directly to make a decision.

All competition performed after the point of filing a formal protest (if the Center Judge refused to get the Rules Arbitrator) prior to ruling will be ruled invalid and competitors to that point must perform again.