

Amount of Points to Win

Each contestant can accumulate as many points as possible during their one minute of playing time. Points for each team member are added to the score cards of the other team members to give a total team score. The team with the most accumulated points from all matches is the winner.