

Blind Competitor Send In

The team members will determine the order of play for their team.

Each fighter will fight one match only.

The opposing teams line up with their backs to each other. On the center referee's command "Send out a fighter" a member from each team will take one step backwards into the ring. The two fighters who have stepped back will be the competitors for that match.